

North Pointe United Methodist Church of Racine, Wisconsin, is a congregation that believes we are all created in God's image and have sacred worth. We welcome and affirm all persons without regard to age, race, ethnicity, mental/physical disability or marital status; and without regard to sexual orientation or gender identity. In full inclusion, each person is invited and encouraged to participate in every phase of our church life and the ministries of North Pointe United Methodist Church, a reconciling congregation.